The Opportunity

The Flats at 4001 Roseland is a newly constructed, boutique 8-unit multifamily asset located in the heart of Old East Dallas, just minutes from Downtown, Uptown, Lower Greenville, and Deep Ellum. The property features a highly desirable mix of studios and one-bedroom units with modern finishes, open-concept floor plans, full kitchens, walk-in closets, and private balconies or patios. With strong in-place rents, the asset offers durable income in one of Dallas' most walkable urban neighborhoods.

The property is currently operating with proven rental performance and offers measurable upside through income and expense efficiencies post-lease-up and continued organic rent growth. Projected stabilization supports improved net operating income while maintaining expense ratios consistent with comparable small urban assets. The boutique size allows for efficient management and operational control, creating an attractive opportunity for both private and professional investors.

Positioned in a high-income trade area with average household incomes exceeding $113,000 within a three-mile radius, the property benefits from strong renter demand driven by proximity to major employment centers, healthcare institutions, and entertainment corridors. As the Dallas–Fort Worth metroplex continues to lead the nation in population and job growth, The Flats at 4001 Roseland is well positioned to deliver long-term appreciation and sustained rental demand in a supply-constrained infill location.

MARKET OVERVIEW

The Flats at 4001 Roseland
Dallas, TX 75204

Old East Dallas

Neighborhood Overview

Positioned immediately east of Downtown Dallas and adjacent to Deep Ellum, the Old East Dallas neighborhood surrounding 3981 Roseland Avenue is one of the city's most established and densely developed urban residential corridors. The area is characterized by a strong renter base driven by proximity to Baylor University Medical Center, the Central Business District, and major employment centers in Downtown and Uptown. Tree-lined streets, historic homes, mid-rise multifamily developments, and walkable retail clusters along Ross Avenue and Greenville Avenue define the neighborhood's urban appeal. Continued reinvestment and infill development have reinforced Old East Dallas' reputation as a preferred residential location for young professionals and healthcare employees.

Household incomes in the surrounding trade area trend near and above the metro average, supported by employment in healthcare, professional services, finance, and technology. The neighborhood benefits from immediate access to US-75, I-30, and the DART light rail, enhancing both commuter connectivity and lifestyle appeal. High renter demand, limited land availability, and sustained population growth across Dallas' urban core have contributed to durable multifamily fundamentals within Old East Dallas, positioning the submarket as one of the most competitive and supply-constrained rental environments in North Texas.

DFW TEXAS

DALLAS-FORT WORTH, TX

The Dallas-Fort Worth metropolitan area is distinguished by its exceptional and consistent population growth, demonstrating its strong regional allure. The Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex has witnessed exceptional growth from 2019 to 2024, solidifying its position as one of the fastest-expanding regions in the United States, at over 10% during the period. Recent data highlight this surge, with DFW adding approximately 177,922 residents from 2023 to 2024, pushing the total population to around 8.3 million. This increase, with over 650,000 new residents since 2020, is fueled by strong domestic migration, as individuals relocate for its thriving job market and affordable living. This influx of young professionals contributes to more households, underscoring the region's appeal as a prime location for long-term residence.

Higher Education

The Dallas-Fort Worth region is anchored by strong higher education institutions that fuel its economy and workforce. The University of Texas at Dallas, with over 31,000 students, is a major research hub, while Southern Methodist University, enrolling more than 12,000, is renowned for business and law. Both produce high graduation rates, supplying skilled talent and driving innovation. Smaller schools like Paul Quinn College enrich diversity and culture, further broadening the region's intellectual capital. These institutions not only prepare a highly educated workforce but also attract businesses eager to tap into their graduates, increasing housing demand and stimulating long-term growth. Combined with a business friendly climate and lower cost of living, DFW's higher education ecosystem strengthens its appeal to relocating companies, particularly from California, and reinforces its position as a hub for knowledge-based industries.

Net Lease Disclaimer – There are many different types of leases, including gross, net, single net ("N"), double net ("NN"), and triple net ("NNN") leases. The distinctions between different types of leases or within the same type of leases, such as "Bondable NNN," "Absolute NNN," "True NNN," or other NNN leases, are not always clear. Labels given to different leases may mean different things to different people and are not defined legal terms. Buyers cannot rely on the labels or marketing descriptions given to any lease when making their purchasing decisions. Buyers must closely review all lease terms and are advised to seek legal counsel to determine the landlord and tenant's respective rights and duties under the lease to ensure the lease, regardless of how labeled or described, meets the buyers' particular needs.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - o any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
