Local Market Overview

Flower Mound, Texas is one of the most affluent and rapidly growing communities within the Dallas–Fort Worth metroplex, positioned along the highly desirable Denton County and North Tarrant County growth corridor. The town benefits from strong household incomes, high population growth, and a business-friendly environment that continues to attract both residents and employers. Median household incomes significantly exceed national averages, supporting strong consumer spending and making the area an attractive destination for retailers and service-oriented tenants. Flower Mound’s strategic location between Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport and the expanding North Dallas employment hubs provides excellent accessibility via major thoroughfares including FM 2499, FM 1171, and nearby Interstate 35E and SH 121, reinforcing its role as a regional retail and healthcare destination.

The area’s expanding population base, combined with a highly educated demographic profile and strong daytime population, has fueled consistent demand for neighborhood retail and outpatient healthcare services. Continued residential development and master-planned communities across southern Denton County are driving sustained demand for convenience retail, dining, and medical office providers seeking proximity to an affluent patient base. Healthcare systems and private practices have increasingly targeted Flower Mound due to its strong insurance demographics, population growth, and limited supply of well-located medical office space relative to demand. As the broader North DFW corridor continues to expand, the Flower Mound retail and medical office market is well positioned for stable tenant demand, long-term occupancy resilience, and durable rent growth supported by the area’s strong economic fundamentals.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - o any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
