The Opportunity

Matthews™ is pleased to present a value-add multifamily opportunity located at 224 - 228 Hold St, Killeen, TX 76541. The property consists of a 26-unit community offered at an asking price of $600,000, reflecting a 9.95% in-place cap rate and a 7.88% pro forma cap rate with light updates. The asset benefits from a centralized layout, allowing for efficient management and maintenance operations, and is conveniently positioned near major transportation corridors with access to the broader Killeen–Fort Cavazos metropolitan area.

The property features well-maintained 1960s and 1970s vintage construction, originally built between 1965 and 1978, and is currently operating at approximately 100% occupancy. Units average approximately 416 SF. Since acquiring the asset in 2022, current ownership has not implemented renovations, leaving all units in classic condition. Only four units currently offer washer and dryer connections, presenting a clear opportunity for interior upgrades and amenity enhancements.

Killeen's economic foundation is anchored by Fort Hood (formerly Fort Cavazos), one of the largest military installations in the United States and a primary driver of regional housing demand. The base supports a large population of active-duty personnel, civilian employees, and contractors, providing consistent rental demand. The median home price in Killeen is approximately $220,000, reinforcing the continued need for affordable rental housing options.

Investors are presented with multiple value-add strategies, including implementing professional management, reducing repair and maintenance expenses, introducing water bill-back programs, and increasing rents by approximately 10% without renovations or up to 20% with light interior upgrades. These opportunities position the asset to enhance cash flow and unlock long-term value.

INVESTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

Property Highlights

- Significant value-add opportunity with potential to increase rents by 10%+ through strategic renovations and operational enhancements, and 20% with light unit renovations.
- Desirable unit mix consisting of one bed one bathroom catering to a broad tenant demographic.
- Located in Killeen, home to Fort Hood (formerly Fort Cavazos), one of the largest U.S. military installations—providing a stable and consistent tenant base driven by active-duty military personnel.
- Killeen benefits from strong in-migration trends supported by its relative housing affordability compared to major Texas metros.
- Offered at an attractive cost basis, presenting upside potential for long-term value appreciation.
- Market supported by solid local demographics, including a median household income of approximately $60,000.

Local Market Overview

Killeen is a Central Texas community shaped by sustained in-migration, regional connectivity, and a stable economic base. Positioned along key transportation corridors and within reach of major employment centers in the Texas Triangle, the city benefits from accessibility while maintaining a more attainable cost structure than larger metros. Residential growth has followed expanding infrastructure and retail development, reinforcing Killeen's role as a practical and well-located housing market for a broad range of residents. Ongoing public and private investment continues to support neighborhood development, commercial services, and quality-of-life amenities.

The local economy is anchored by a large federal military installation, which provides long-term employment stability and supports demand across housing, retail, healthcare, and service sectors. This institutional presence, combined with expanding healthcare and education assets, contributes to consistent economic activity and resilience across cycles. Killeen's workforce depth and diversified consumer base have encouraged continued interest from investors and developers seeking exposure to Central Texas growth without direct dependence on major urban cores. The city's combination of scale, stability, and strategic location positions it as an increasingly relevant market within the broader regional landscape.

LOCAL ECONOMY & DEMAND DRIVERS

Local Economy

Killeen, TX serves as a regional employment hub in Central Texas, with economic activity driven by Fort Cavazos, healthcare, education, and retail services. The area maintains a sizable civilian workforce alongside a military presence, contributing to consistent household formation and housing turnover.

Median household incomes remain below statewide averages, reinforcing renter preferences while supporting demand for value-oriented housing options. Proximity to Austin and Waco expands employment access without the cost structure of larger metros.

From a multifamily perspective, these conditions support occupancy levels fueled by workforce renters and military households. Communities offering efficient layouts, competitive pricing, and access to major corridors are positioned to capture demand as new supply remains limited.

Local Demand Drivers

Killeen, TX benefits from several localized demand drivers tied to Fort Hood, one of the largest military installations in the world, which supports steady housing demand from service members, civilian employees, and contractors. The base generates consistent turnover and short- to mid-term housing needs throughout the year.

Beyond the military presence, Killeen offers access to regional healthcare facilities, Central Texas College, and Texas A&M University—Central Texas, all of which contribute to student and workforce housing demand. Retail corridors along US-190 and proximity to Belton Lake further enhance the area's livability.

Together, these attractions support sustained rental demand, particularly for multifamily properties located near employment centers, educational institutions, and major transportation routes.

Economic Impact

Fort Hood serves as a primary economic engine in Central Texas, with regional activity generated through military operations, civilian employment, contracting, and support services. The installation sustains a large active-duty population alongside civilians, contributing to steady population turnover and consistent housing demand.

Economic output tied to the base supports wages below statewide averages, reinforcing renter demand while sustaining interest in value-oriented housing options. Proximity to Austin and Waco broadens employment access without metro costs.

From a multifamily perspective, this foundation supports occupancy levels driven by civilian employees and military households. Properties offering efficient layouts, competitive pricing, and access to regional corridors are positioned to capture demand as new supply remains limited.

3. You will not, directly or indirectly, disclose or permit anyone else to disclose this Offering Memorandum or its contents in any fashion or manner.

Matthews Real Estate Investment Service™. is not affiliated with, sponsored by, or endorsed by any commercial tenant or lessee in the Offering Memorandum. The presence of any entity's name or logo, including any commercial tenant's name or logo, is informational only and does not indicate or suggest any affiliation and/or endorsement of Matthews™., the property, or the seller by such entity.

Owner and Matthews™. expressly reserve the right, at their sole discretion, to reject any and all expressions of interest or offers to purchase the Property and to terminate discussions with any person or entity reviewing this Offering Memorandum or making an offer to purchase the Property unless and until a written agreement for the purchase and sale of the Property has been fully executed and delivered.

If you wish not to pursue negotiations leading to the acquisition of the Property or in the future you discontinue such negotiations, then you agree to purge all materials relating to this Property including this Offering Memorandum.

A prospective purchaser's sole and exclusive rights with respect to this prospective transaction, the Property, or information provided herein or in connection with the sale of the Property shall be limited to those expressly provided in an executed Purchase Agreement and shall be subject to the terms thereof. In no event shall a prospective purchaser have any other claims against Owner or Matthews™. or any of their affiliates or any of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, owners, employees, or agents for any damages, liability, or causes of action relating to this solicitation process or the marketing or sale of the Property.

This Offering Memorandum shall not be deemed to represent the state of affairs of the Property or constitute an indication that there has been no change in the state of affairs of the Property since the date of this Offering Memorandum.

Net Lease Disclaimer – There are many different types of leases, including gross, net, single net ("N"), double net ("NN"), and triple net ("NNN") leases. The distinctions between different types of leases or within the same type of leases, such as "Bondable NNN," "Absolute NNN," "True NNN," or other NNN leases, are not always clear. Labels given to different leases may mean different things to different people and are not defined legal terms. Buyers cannot rely on the labels or marketing descriptions given to any lease when making their purchasing decisions. Buyers must closely review all lease terms and are advised to seek legal counsel to determine the landlord and tenant's respective rights and duties under the lease to ensure the lease, regardless of how labeled or described, meets the buyers' particular needs.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
  - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
  - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
  - o any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
