ALVIN, TX

Local Market Overview

Alvin, Texas is a steadily growing and well-established community known for its welcoming atmosphere, strong sense of hometown pride, and family-oriented lifestyle. Located south of Houston near the Gulf Coast region, Alvin offers residents the comfort of suburban and small-town living while still providing convenient access to the opportunities and amenities of the greater Houston area. This balance continues to attract families, professionals, and individuals seeking affordability, community connection, and long-term stability.

The city's economy is diverse and dependable, supported by industries such as petrochemicals, manufacturing, healthcare, education, agriculture, and retail. A combination of major regional employers and locally owned businesses helps create a stable job market with opportunities across a variety of fields. Alvin's location near major industrial and commercial corridors also contributes to continued economic activity and employment growth, providing residents with both career opportunities and economic security.

In addition to its economic strengths, Alvin offers a high quality of life with local parks, recreational facilities, dining, shopping, and community events that foster strong connections among residents. The city continues to invest in development and infrastructure improvements while maintaining the character and charm that make it unique. With its blend of opportunity, affordability, and community-centered living, Alvin remains an appealing place to settle down and build a balanced, fulfilling life.

HOUSTON, TX

Houston, Texas is a diverse city that stands as the fourth-largest in the United States, known for its unique blend of southern charm and cosmopolitan allure. Located in the southeastern part of the state, Houston boasts a rich cultural tapestry, with a thriving arts scene, world-class museums like the Museum of Fine Arts and the Menil Collection, and a burgeoning culinary landscape featuring a wide array of international cuisines. The city is synonymous with the space industry, home to NASA's Johnson Space Center, where historic moon landings were orchestrated.

Additionally, Houston is a hub for the energy sector, with countless oil and gas companies headquartered here. The city's sprawling landscape is dotted with lush parks, including Hermann Park and Buffalo Bayou Park, providing ample opportunities for outdoor recreation. With a booming economy and a warm, welcoming community, Houston continues to be a beacon of opportunity and diversity in the Lone Star State.

HOUSTON ECONOMY

Houston is a city of endless possibilities: Its history has been marked with achievements from the first word heard from the moon to the first artificial heart transplant. A distinctly favorable business climate promotes trade, commerce, industry, and economic growth in the Houston region. Many businesses recognize the allure of all Houston has to offer. Once dominated by oil-related jobs, Houston's economy has diversified as new, core industries join energy in the regional employment mix. Houston's current major industries include energy, aerospace and defense, and bioscience. Houston is home to the Texas Medical Center, the world's largest concentration of healthcare and research institutions, and NASA's Johnson Space Center, where the Mission Control Center is located. Additionally, it is home to numerous Fortune 500 companies and over 60 medical organizations. According to Forbes, Houston has a gross metro product of $482.1 billion.

Houston maintains a global position as an international trade leader with economic and cultural ties reaching across the globe. As one of only five cities in the world connecting to all six inhabited continents, Houston is a global manufacturing and logistics hub and an international finance center. Over 5,000 Houston companies are engaged in international business and approximately 1,000 Houston firms report foreign ownership. International trade directly or indirectly supports more than one-third of all jobs in the Houston metropolitan area. Fifteen foreign governments maintain trade and commercial offices here, and the city has 35 active foreign chambers of commerce and trade associations.

Information About Brokerage Services
Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
  - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
  - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
  - o any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
