INVESTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

Property Highlights

- Two-tenant building leased to Dollar Tree, a nationally recognized, investment-grade credit tenant (S&P: BBB), and Community Life, a local health and wellness center with six locations throughout the Pittsburgh MSA. Dollar Tree's lease provides a credit-oriented component within the rent roll, helping diversify the overall credit risk of the investment.
- The property offers ±5.75 years of weighted average lease term remaining, providing investors with a long-term, guaranteed stream of cash flow and minimal lease rollover risk for the foreseeable future.
- Both leases include two 5-year renewal options. Dollar Tree has approximately ±5.00 years remaining on its lease, while Community Life has approximately ±6.00 years remaining. Community Life operates under a NN+ lease structure with strong reimbursements and minimal expense slippage, while Dollar Tree is on a gross lease.
- The ±22,300-square-foot building is situated on a large ±4.51-acre parcel featuring 68 parking spaces, three points of ingress/egress, and approximately 450 feet of frontage.
- A Tractor Supply is currently under construction adjacent to the site, with an anticipated opening in early 2027. The property is expected to benefit from the additional retail synergy and increased traffic generated by the new tenant.
- Located within the primary retail trade area of the community, neighboring tenants include McDonald's, CVS, Advance Auto Parts, Sheetz, and more. Logans Ferry Road and Greensburg Rd experiences traffic counts of approximately ±26,655 vehicles per day, providing consistent consumer exposure to the site.
- The asset benefits from a 5-mile median age of ±45.9 years, which is above the national average of ± 38.9 years. This demographic is advantageous for Community Life, whose services focus on assisting the elderly population in maintaining independent living rather than transitioning into nursing home care.
- Lower Burrell is located approximately ±18 miles northeast of downtown Pittsburgh and is part of the greater Pittsburgh metropolitan area. More than 285,000 residents live within a 10-mile radius of the property, with an average household income exceeding $116,281.

Local Market Overview

Lower Burrell is a suburban community in Westmoreland County that benefits from its proximity to the Pittsburgh metropolitan area while maintaining a quieter, residential character. The city is defined by stable neighborhoods, access to the Allegheny River, and a strong sense of local identity shaped by long-term residents and multigenerational households. Convenient connectivity via Route 28 and nearby regional corridors allows residents to commute to major employment centers while enjoying lower density living and a more relaxed pace. Retail corridors and essential services are easily accessible, supporting day-to-day needs without requiring extended travel.

The surrounding region reflects a diversified economic base transitioning from its historic industrial roots to a mix of healthcare, education, advanced manufacturing, and logistics. Lower Burrell benefits from this evolution, offering residents access to employment opportunities throughout the greater Pittsburgh area. Outdoor recreation is a defining feature, with nearby parks, trails, and riverfront areas contributing to quality of life and community appeal. Continued investment in infrastructure and redevelopment across Westmoreland County supports long-term stability, positioning the area as an attractive option for those seeking affordability within reach of a major metropolitan economy.

PITTSBURGH, PA MSA

Pittsburgh is the second-largest city in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the county seat of Allegheny County. With a metropolitan population of over 2.3 million people, the city is the largest in both the Ohio Valley and Appalachia. Pittsburgh is known as “Steel City” for its more than 300 steel-related businesses, as well as “The City of Bridges” for its 446 bridges. The city features 30 skyscrapers, 2 inclines, a pre-revolutionary fortification, and the source of the Ohio River at the confluence of the Monongahela and Allegheny Rivers.

Pittsburgh’s booming economy is due to its major industries which include manufacturing, healthcare and life sciences, energy, financial and business services, and information technology. Over 12.3 million overnight trips to the Pittsburgh region are made each year due to the city’s museums, entertainment centers, and sporting events. The area is also home to 68 colleges and universities including research and development leaders Carnegie Mellon University and the University of Pittsburgh. The Pittsburgh Metropolitan Area is an ideal place to live, work, and play.

PITTSBURGH ECONOMY

Pittsburgh is a major hub for manufacturing, healthcare, energy, finance and business, and information technology. Global manufacturing firms and small precision tooling and machining companies in Pittsburgh continuously meet the increasing demand for a variety of goods, including materials, parts, and components for critical industries. The University of Pittsburgh and Carnegie Mellon University have helped grow Pittsburgh's healthcare industry through the cultivation of healthcare technology and life-saving medicine and pharmaceuticals. Pittsburgh's energy industry is made up of 1,050 firms including Chevron, Eaton, PPG Industries Inc., and Shell Chemicals. Due to the presence of these major companies in Pittsburgh, it has become the #1 U.S. exporter of coal, metal ore, and other non-metallic minerals. The finance and business industry in Pittsburgh is made up of 11,467 firms including Bank of America, BNY Mellon, Highmark Inc., and many more. Thus, the region has been the center of asset management and banking for more than 150 years. The information technology industry in Pittsburgh is made up of many startups including ANSYS, Duolingo, and Schell Games. It is also the #2 region for IT degrees, producing over 2,600 IT degree graduates each year.

INDUSTRIES

The nation's seventh-largest bank, five Fortune 500 companies, and seven of the largest 350 US law firms make their global headquarters in the Pittsburgh area. RAND, BNY Mellon, Nova, FedEx, Bayer, and NIOSH also have regional corporate offices in Pittsburgh. Google, Bosch, Uber, and Intel are among 1,600 technology firms generating $20.7 billion in annual Pittsburgh payrolls, with the area serving as the long-time federal agency headquarters for cyber defense, software engineering, robotics, energy research, and the nuclear navy.

A prospective purchaser's sole and exclusive rights with respect to this prospective transaction, the Property, or information provided herein or in connection with the sale of the Property shall be limited to those expressly provided in an executed Purchase Agreement and shall be subject to the terms thereof. In no event shall a prospective purchaser have any other claims against Owner or Matthews™. or any of their affiliates or any of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, owners, employees, or agents for any damages, liability, or causes of action relating to this solicitation process or the marketing or sale of the Property.

This Offering Memorandum shall not be deemed to represent the state of affairs of the Property or constitute an indication that there has been no change in the state of affairs of the Property since the date of this Offering Memorandum.

Net Lease Disclaimer – There are many different types of leases, including gross, net, single net ("N"), double net ("NN"), and triple net ("NNN") leases. The distinctions between different types of leases or within the same type of leases, such as "Bondable NNN," "Absolute NNN," "True NNN," or other NNN leases, are not always clear. Labels given to different leases may mean different things to different people and are not defined legal terms. Buyers cannot rely on the labels or marketing descriptions given to any lease when making their purchasing decisions. Buyers must closely review all lease terms and are advised to seek legal counsel to determine the landlord and tenant's respective rights and duties under the lease to ensure the lease, regardless of how labeled or described, meets the buyers' particular needs.
